

Consolidation: The Next Step after Graduation

You have just completed law school. What a great achievement! We here at Law School Loans would like to be among the first to congratulate you!

Now it is time to lay a firm foundation for your financial future, and manage all of the student loan debt that you accumulated during law school. Law School Loans, a true lender, will help you do just that by consolidating your student loans. Consolidating your student loans with Law School Loans will:

- Merge your multiple student loans into one, easy-to-manage loan
- Help you save thousands of dollars over the life of your loan
- Improve your credit score

Law School Loans: America's Top Law School Lender

We are experts and have experience consolidating a variety of loans typically carried by law students and attorneys. As America's Top Law School Lender, we help our borrowers receive the highest savings possible on both federal and private student loan consolidations.

Federal Loan Consolidations with Law School Loans

When you consolidate your federal student loans with Law School Loans, you can take advantage of the following benefits:

- Low fixed interest rates
- Several flexible repayment plans
- Extended repayment terms up to 30 years
- An Immediate 0.25% interest rate reduction upon enrollment in our automated debit payment program
- An Additional 1% off your interest rate after 36 consecutive on-time payments (once earned, it is guaranteed for the life of your consolidation)
- No Fees
- No Prepayment penalties
- No Credit checks
- No Income verification
- Deferment and forbearance options
- Work with only one lender, as opposed to several
- Helpful customer service

Private Loan Consolidations with Law School Loans

Law School Loans also offers the following private loan consolidation features:

- Low interest rates
- Flexible Repayment options
- Extended Repayment terms
- An Immediate 0.25% interest rate reduction upon enrollment in our automated debit payment program
- No Prepayment penalties
- Work with only one lender, as opposed to several
- Helpful customer service

Start your career as an attorney off right, by consolidating your student loans with Law School Loans! For more information call 800.659.8344 or Apply for Loan Consolidation Now.